Welcome to Patrick Hampson who is joining the council as the youth member. Patrick introduced himself to the council.

The Council was asked to review the three metal chairs that were in the hall. The council liked the two blue chairs shown with solid back chair preferred.

Volunteers have stepped up to run the golf tournament. Fr. Joe showed the logo that will be used for this tournament. The months without the Eucharistic adoration will have a rosary. There was also a discussion of the ceremonies required. The Spirituality Committee also plans to ask parishioners to host the rosary in their homes during October. There are a few publications that the committee would like to purchase to have for the services. Julie was directed to contact Mary on purchasing publications.
