3. New Business

Email from Maggie Guzzardo on memorializing candles with a bulletin announcement. The council agrees that we will do this with the donation being $20.00 per week.

Liturgical committee asked if they should be disbanded and the council agrees that they should be disbanded as their work is done.

There was a discussion of large groups attending services. Extra chairs were moved into the new church for the confirmation and the same will be done for First Communion.

There will be a Spanish first communion for 6 families. Fr. Joe will investigate having Spanish mass once per month in the chapel.

The 2nd annual Golf Tournament will be Monday Aug 24, 2009 at the Peddie School.

A committee is needed to plan the dedication liturgy. Deacon Ray will lead this committee.

We need to recruit more Eucharist ministers so we can do both species at masses. All Parish council members are asked to recruit more members.

There was a discussion of the parish picnic and what location would be better, church or chapel.

Spirituality committee would like to do a prayer breakfast, with a guest speaker in September. Parish council approves pending calendar check.

Spirituality committee would like to invite other parishes to our events.

Parish council approves.

Spirituality committee would like to do a movie in June. Parish council approves pending calendar check.

4. New Church Construction Project.

There is still some finish work that remains to be done and the finance committee is determining what bills are outstanding.

The meeting ended at 8:50 PM.
