Leo welcomed everyone to the meeting. Leo had nothing else to report.

2. Unfinished Business

Training for the Eucharistic Ministry was attended by 63 people. At the training a concern was raised on the proper way to receive the Holy Eucharist. It was suggested that a refresher should be done on the proper way to receive the Holy Eucharist.

It was mentioned that the Evergreen tree in front of the church is leaning, and should it be straightened and staked. Father said he would talk to Mr. Dawkins.

3. NEW BUSINESS

A letter was read from The Knights and the Rosary Alter Society requesting approval for a covered dish supper. They wanted to have the event in April. There would be two settings 4:00 and 6:00 p.m. A discussion followed and the council agreed that would be a good idea as long as scheduling was not a problem.

Ashley made a request on selling reminder bracelets to help Haiti. The bracelets would say "Help Haiti Heal" and would sell for $1.50. The money would be donated to the Catholic Relief Services. The council agreed and requested that the sale be done when there were no other fund raisers in progress.

Father Joe informed us about his training sessions at Drew University. Afterward he asked the council if they wanted Father Muth to come and train the people who signed up at the Evangelization Program. The council agreed that would be a great idea.

Deacon Ray stated that more Lectors were needed at certain masses and Leo said more ushers could also be used.

A comment was made that before mass the doors to the worship area are open and the talking and greeting of people was very distracting for those who want to pray before mass. It was decided by the council that the doors should be kept closed, so people could have the opportunity to pray.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:00
