calendar availability. There will be training on listening. The goal is to learn the actual needs of the parish.

With the doors closed between the Narthex and the Worship space it is quieter in the Worship space. Leo will advise all ushers to keep the doors closed.

The youth bracelets for Haiti sale profit was $475.00

3. NEW BUSINESS

Julie presented a report on the retreat and thanked the members who helped, Father McClane, Deacon Vince and Leo. The day was a success.

A review of holy week services occurred with attendance about the same as last year with the Easter Sunday masses were better attended. Both the 9:30 and 11:00 AM masses had a full church. The comments made were that the services were well done and enjoyed by the congregation.

Fr. Joe asked if the Knights can reconfigure the chairs in the Church before the Conformation service on April 16. Father also requested that the Knights and youth group do cleanup at the new church. Father also suggested that a community yard sale be held at the Evergreen Road location. Leo will handle these requests.

Father reported that we are getting bids to have the driveways repaved in the chapel.
